we also met with civilian liaison officers attached to the southern command from the central intelligence agency, defense intelligence agency, national security agency, u.s.

i guess we will see what happens and how well it works further down the road.